

OCCCA

ALTERNATE VIEWS

OCCCA
117 North Sycamore
Santa Ana California 92701
714 667-1517
www.occca.org

“ OCCCA’s purpose is the pursuit of professional excellence and freedom of expression in the Arts. It provides emerging and established artists a forum to explore and develop ideas in contemporary art.”

Gallery Hours Thursday and Sunday 12.00 - 5.00 PM
Friday and Saturday 12.00 - 9.00 PM

Show Closing Date; August 30, 2008

“ Untitled “ Mixed Media Surf Art

S.Salgadodirzo@yahoo.com

Sergio Salgado Dirzo

Sergio’s art explores California culture along the west coast that represents a spirit of freedom. A unique contemporary view, as an alternative idea. The old with a new perspective in different mediums. The act of making a revolutionary statement about this unique culture.

Orange County Center for Contemporary Art
Opening Reception August 2, 2008 6 - 10 PM
Rich Bohn will delight us with his special sounds.

Norman Korpi

“ Twilight “

Norman's paintings of his “Twilight Series” walks a fine line between the real and what is not real. He wants us to see and understand (or to own – if only for a few moments) The Twilight. He captures his audience in a world that goes beyond the canvas and pushes the infinite possibilities of what Art can show us – and what we leave behind with Art.

“ Sunset Boulevard “

Norman@NormanKorpi.com

Rik Lawrence

“ 25 Years of New Zealand “

Rik's Photographs document another Magical world of unique culture and beauty. The focus is on the rural beauty of New Zealand landscapes. Sometimes accompanied by other life forms such as goats, sheep, cows and occasionally people. But always beautiful. From the very last sunset of the 20th century and the very first sunrise of the new millennium; to the hearty and humble people who built this incredible country.

“ Rangiora New Zealand “

riklawrence@mac.com